SCHULTZE-BANHAM WEDDING ON KAUA

Pages Scatter Flower In Bridal Path

Lihue, Kauni, Nov. 30.-A mongreeable and representative meetitook place on Sunday evening, N vember 16th, at Walmea, the first p in the Foreign Church, the second the pretty residence of Mr. and M Thorvald Brandt. The occasion w the marriage of Miss Mable Gertra Banham, daughter of the Rev. H. Banham of Martinez, and late of W sea, and Mr. Wilhelm Karl Schuli bead luna of Makaweli plantation, T Church had been beautifull decorat several kind friends, work der the competent direction of M rancis Gay, flowers, ferns, palms : is having been furnished not or y the ladies of Waimea and Mal eli, but also from Libue.

The ceremony was performed the Rev. C. Milliken, the bride bel-liven away by Professor L. W. Ha acted as bridesmaid and Mr. E. Cre cas best man, whilst the two pretty ovenile daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H . Fave officiated as pages of honor rrying baskets of choice flowers. Mrs. F. Gay presided at the organ and at 8 o'clock Mr. Dougherty sang a solo with great feeling, "Because God Made Thee Mine," at the conclusion of which the bridal procession entered to the inspiring strains of Wagner's tridal march from Lohenstrin. First rame the two title pages, then the bridesmaid, after which came the bride, leaning on the arm of Mr. Hart. They were met at the minister's desk by Rev. MDSken, the bridegroom and he best man. A portion of the Epis-opalian service was read, during thich Mrs. Gay played soft and ap copriate music. The ceremony being aded and the benediction given, the occasion re-formed, this time the ide and bridegroom walking out to gether, preceded by the little pages of honor, who scattered flowers their path, next followed the bride maid, supported by the best man Professor Hart bringing up the rear, As the procession marched out, followed by the large congregation (the church being nearly full), the organist played Mendelssohn's wedding march. centinuing it in a spirited manner un il the congregation was all out. Between eighty and ninety person had been invited to attend the recep-tion at Mr. Brandt's house, and the spacious room and lanat (which were Leastifully decorated) presented an animated appearance. Many handsome gowns were to be seen among the guests, and the many pretty faces and general rechersche appearance of numerous visitors gave to the whole scene an animated and brilliant effect Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay, Mrs. V. Knudsen, Mr. nd Mrs. Eric Knudsen, Mrs. Isenberg and Mrs. McGauley, Dr. and Mrs. San-low, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rice, Miss K. Ward, Miss Ethel Wilcox, Judge and Mrs. Hofgaard, Mr. and Mrs. Omsted. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Faye, Miss Faye, Mr. and Mrs. G. Ewart, and indeed it seemed as if all Waimea and Makaweli were assem-tied to do honor to the occasion. The shers did good service under the able trection of Mr. H. Kennedy. The bride's dress was white crepe to chine, a !a Princess, trimmed with chiffon, and tied here and there with with orange blossoms; the bouquet was made up of choice white flowers. with streamers, of green, and tulle, and white slik ribbons. The brides-maid wore a dress of pink crepe de The happy pair left about 10 o'clock of the Makaweli plantation house.

for the Makawell plantation house. The large company sat down to sup-per at about 9 o'clock, and dancing was kept up till near midnight.-Gar

MAJOR DUNNING IMPOUNDS STRAY STOCK

Patience has ceased to be a virtue with Major Dunning; at least as far as roaming cattle are concerned. Frequent complaints to the owners of wandering stock has met with indifference from these same owners and yesterday the Major called for a round-up on the range, and the result was some twenty head of cattle were gathered in and driven to the pound.

The depredations on anything green by the stray cattle has thoroughly discouraged those who would beautify the Reservation with lawn, plants, and flowers.
